“The body is a unit, though it is made up of many parts; and though all its parts are many, they form one body. So it is with Christ. For we were all baptized by one Spirit into one body--whether Jews or Greeks, slave or free--and we were all given the one Spirit to drink.”
- 1 Corinthians 12:12-13

“Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.” - Philippians 4:8

“Pray also for me, that whenever I open my mouth, words may be given me so that I will fearlessly make known the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it fearlessly, as I should.”
Ephesians 6:19

Serving God as a Community

Serve Day

Right: One student graciously helps out with the Cat Adoption program by cleaning the cages of the animals to help provide a more sanitary environment.

"We went to Rodgers Landing on t Willamette. I spent the day repairing underground sprinkler system. We cleared ton of ground and it was really rewarding see the end result," says Lacey Stroda.

Right: "We went to the Cat Adoption Team and helped clean up rooms for cats with leukemia and HIV. It was a wonderful experience and I realized that sometimes serving God doesn't just mean serving people, but all His creatures, too. It hardly felt like service," says Rebecca DuPree.

Left: Helping to paint a worn and tattered old fence, Lydia Rossi and Megan Weiss do their best to make the Newberg Care Home aesthetically pleasing.

Above: As they do some weeding and shoveling of leaves and unwanted debris, Melissa Alexander and her friend attempt to clean up the surrounding grounds.

Left: "I was able to spend the day working at the Newberg Care Home helping out the elderly folks that live there. It really touched me to see how a few seemingly insignificant hours from my day could be spent brightening someone else's," says Emily Harris.

Spiritually Forming and Challenging Chapel

Right: Director of the Friends Center at George Fox Evangelical Seminary, Richard Sartwell shared during the week of November 17th. His time with us was dedicated to the topic of "The Church... Who Needs It?"

Below: Campus Pastor Gregg Lamm has served the student body in so many ways this year. Among those services, many go unnoticed, he provided strong Bible-based teaching a number of times in chapel.

Above: During the Annual Quaker Heritage Week, Arthur Roberts shared his vision about integrity in our everyday lives.

Right: Student Chaplain Matt Cox shared his heart with us this year. He says, "This year I have seen the God of yesterday, today, and tomorrow intersect powerfully with individual lives. It has been a privilege and it has been humbling."

Left: The Chapel Band (l-r): Tiffany Marks, Kyle Welstad, Dustin Johnston, Adam Clough, Richard McNeal, Kelly Cudney, Matt Hartzell, and worship coordinator Jeremy Brown. Of her experience in Chapel Band, Kelly says, "It's a joy to lead others in worship with such fine people. It has been more than a pleasure to serve in this way. The memories and fun times are irreplaceable."

Above: Students gather twice a week to worship together in song, fellowship, and learning more of the nature of God.

Left: The Chapel Band plays and students are united in worship of our King. Brea Cohen loves that we are able to "worship as one body in a non-denominational setting."

All Campus Retreats

Right: Amber Linkh, Molly Boyle, and Kevin Bennie enjoy a relaxing evening of card playing and fellowship together on the last night of the Spring Retreat.

Middle: Aubrey Kress, Christopher Roenicke, Molly Gallagher, and Jessica Whitaker proudly display the pumpkin they carved at the Fall Retreat.

Above: Immediately after arriving at the camp area, Laura Rogers climbs to the top of the three layered bunkbeds to scope out the most coveted bed in the cabin.

Below: On a rare sunny day, the ever adventurous Brent Strandy and Ryan Heibert make their way down to the ocean means of jumping off the huge sand bank.

Left: The Spring Retreat served as a method of growth by providing small groups with fellow cabinmates after each sermon. This small group gets close for a picture full of memories.

Above: "The retreats this year have been an incredible insight into where God is leading the people of this campus. They have allowed me to take a breath of fresh air and reflect on what God has done in my life, what he is doing, and what he wants to do. They have also been a source of challenge for me to seek more of God and what he desires for me as a Christfollower," says Kevin Bennie.

Left: While enjoying her delicious ice cream from the Tillamook Cheese Factory, Chelsea Ingber is accosted by the mooching Travis Wesley who wanted some. Chelsea says "Both the Fall and Spring Retreats were amazing! It was the perfect way to get a way for a weekend and put everything back into perspective."

Serving God and People in Our Community

On & Off-Campus Ministries

Right: Greenroom offers a time for students to come together and worship with student bands. Brittany Farrer really likes that everyone can be "comfortable with each other in worship."

Below: Students take time out of their schedules on Fridays to seek the Lord's help and sit at His feet. Greenroom has been a place of comfort, peace, challenges, and growth this year.

Above: Ben Wilkinson, Mindy Anderson, and Matt Boswell are part of a group that occasionally lead Greenroom and Over the Edge.

Right: Kristi Hornings shares that Little Bruin "has been an incredible ministry to be part of! I've been with my Bruin all four years and it's been so amazing to watch him grow up."

Left: Lindsey Wolford, the women's ministry coordinator, along with Patrick Willis, men's ministry coordinator, have followed God's leading and encouraged, challenged, and strengthened the students of George Fox this year. They planned Bible studies, prayer time, worship time, service projects, and retreats for the men and women of this campus to meet God in a new way.

Above: Aubrey Kress headed up Operation Christmas Child this year. About her involvement in this, she said, "it's encouraging to know that students wanted to share boxes of cheer with these kids."

Left: Travis Shafer and Joel Speizer spend some quality time sharing food and their hearts with some homeless men in Salem. Of this ministry, Joel says that "it's been great getting to know them and letting them know that there are people who care for them regardless of whether or not they always see that. These guys are people just like us, but in a different situation." Dane Coppini, who also participates in Salem Serve, says, "Our goal is to show the love of the Lord in our hearts to them. This is us feeding and caring for God's sheep."

Celebrating the coming of Christ at

Christmas

Below: President Brandt spoke at the Candlelighting ceremony. The ceremony was moved into the Steven's Center because of rain.

Left: "Being a part of Raise an Endless Alleluia was truly one of the most amazing worship experiences I have ever had. There is nothing more worshipful than being completely surrounded by beautiful music and having the blessed opportunity to be a part of making that music. The whole auditorium was filled with radiance."

Right: Pat Vandehey, a new associate professor of music, conducts the band at this year's Christmas Concert, Raise an Endless Alleluia. The band performed a mix of traditional Christmas music and music from around the world. Pat says of the experience: "The band played well above my expectations and the experience was inspirational and exhilarating."

Sharing God through drama and music

University Players & DaySpring

Right: DaySpring gave a fabulous performance in Chapel. Chad Clark shares his thoughts about the group, "This ministry is about leading people in worship with a servant's heart. I just love it!"

Below: Rebecca Dorsey and Nicholas Schneider perform a real audience pleaser about an engaged couple. "Players shown me that true blessings do come through the giving of yourself and that ministry can be super fun," says Rebecca.

Right: Pisey Sok, Chad Stillinger, and William Riese provide some excellent "body music." Kelsey Tresemer says, "We are all family, friends, actors, children, and idiots... all for the glory of God!"

Left: Mindy Anderson, Bryan Hoerr, and Desiree Haywood blend wonderfully together to create a very rich sound. Of his experience with DaySpring, Bryan says, "When a person comes up to you and says, 'I could really see the love of God in you when you all sang,' it makes it all worthwhile."

Above: The University Players, directed by Mel Schroeder, consist of Chad Stilling, Kelsey Tresemer, Pisey Sok, Rebecca Dorsey, Nicolas Schneider, Charity Joecks, and Willie Riese.

Serve wholeheartedly, as if you were serving the Lord, not men... -Eph. 6:7

Winter Serve

Right: Waiting to decide what to do, the Winter Serve teams that were canceled because of the weather, got together to worship God.

Below: Entertaining the group Zach Stra beautifully plays the guitar in his lovely boa.

Above: Karissa Edwards chats on the phone before helping shovel snow with the rest of the group. When asked what she learned Karissa responded, "I learned a hard lesson about trusting God in spite of what the circumstances look like."

Left: Kristina Tucker, Georgia Lemen, and two other students work hard to get all the snow off the driveways and sidewalks.

Left: John, the man who had his driveway shoveled, is thankfully supporting Megan Hinkle, Fairlight Ankeny, Kendra Wells, Jody Hamm, and Kristina Tucker who are part of the dedicated team that served during the winter storm. When asked about Winter Serve Kendra responded, "Even though the times we were able to serve our community were small and seemed less important than our original intentions, they were greatly appreciated. It was surprising to see how much of a need there was here in Newberg."

Worship The King Spring Serve

Right: Wolf Mountain Camp was the destination for the Mystery team. They prepared camp for the coming year, cleaning for summer session and insulating cabins for winter weather.

Below: Jennifer Loveles, Desiree Haywood, and Dav Harrison just love laying tiles.

Left: There are so many details to take care of when you run a mission that ministers to homeless people. The Las Vegas team was able to pick up some of the easily overlooked but essential tasks like tiling this floor.

Above: The Las Vegas trip provided opportunities to minister to the homeless, to fix up a shelter, and to have fun sightseeing as a team.

Left: The group that journeyed to The Oaks spent a great deal of time forging a hiking trail down the side of a mountain. They also had the opportunity to hang out with a group of 6th graders and minister to them in countless ways.

“And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge--that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.”
